From the Editor

Apologies for the lateness of this issue, I have had an unexpected house move over Queen's Birthday Weekend which has meant me putting 3/4 of the house and garage contents into storage and taking the rest with us to our new smaller property with the prospect of doing it all again in October when our house build is complete. This has been further compounded by internet issues due to a lack of fibre followed by teething trouble with a wireless internet set up.

With the announcement of Alert Level 1 the club received email communication from Kiwi North that from Wednesday 10 June the heritage park is reopening, this means we can now resume operation and the committee met today at the clubrooms.

I had hoped to include a conclusion to my article on the safety valves I was making but due to covid the 5/8" BSB plug tap and 9/16" slot drill I ordered are languishing somewhere in the workings of Royal mail or NZ Post!

Hopefully there should be more content for the July issue and an update on how things have fared at Maunu during the lockdown period.
